

Dear Residents and Conservative Members of Moorside, Ramsbottom and North Manor,

You are cordially invited to attend our next local Conservative Branch Meeting to be held at the Red Hall Hotel on Thursday 27th February. We will commence with 'signing in' and a social chat with light refreshments and free tea and coffee at 7pm. Other beverages can be purchased at the bar.

The meeting will be chaired by Ian Strachan and start at 7.30pm. We will have the pleasure of welcoming Councillor Russell Bernstein to address us with his thoughts, as Bury Councillor Leader, on improving transparency, integrity and trust at a local level. There will be debate and discussion around this topic and we are interested to hear of your experiences and suggestions.

We will also be looking to recruit a Conservative community member to be an executive representative from each of the three wards so nominations are being accepted for these positions. Please contact Marie Holder on 07788737563 if you are interested in this role or require more information.

Please see the attached agenda and If you have any other items to add to the agenda please let Marie know.

We are hoping that more of you will become involved in local politics and contribute to these meetings in your capacity as a member and a tax payer. We are trying to encourage more community involvement to support our sitting Councillors and candidates and for them to keep you informed about local issues. We are also interested to hear about what matters most to you as we prepare for next years local elections and look forward to creating rebalance at Council Chambers by winning more local seats.

Yours sincerely

The Northern Branch Committee
